AVAO coffee table

This collection, baptized Avao, presents warm, refined and sensual curves. It is composed of essential elements: a chair, an armchair, a lounge and a coffee nested table. The materials and colors used are timeless: bent beech wood, oak and walnut veneer, gray and off-white leather, brass... Made in France by local workshops, the design of the collection and its manufacture reflect convictions of Clémentine who also wishes to mark her environmental commitment.

Subtly evoking classics like Mies van der Rohe's S 533 L Cantilever Chair and Marcel Breuer's Cantilever Chair, Avao is a study of contrasts: between the natural warmth of walnut and the deliberate simplicity of off-white leather, between the modernism cantilever design and the more contemporary curved silhouette, and between substantiality and airiness.

AVAO Collection

The AVAO collection is composed of a table chair with and without armrests, a lounge and a coffee table.

Each piece of furniture is numbered.

The structure is an assembly of curved beech wood plies, brass fasteners and invisible threaded stainless steel rods.

The existing range offers three finishes for the seat and the large nesting table: beech, oak or walnut wood and five finishes for the backrest and the small nesting table: beech, oak or walnut wood, gray or off-white leather.

These finishes can be combined with each other. It is possible to order special finishes outside the collection.

The leather and the vegan leather can be selected on the line offered by Tassin <http://www.tassin-cuir.com/en/>

This collection is completely dismountable.

Price on request.
